

Gerund or infinitive?

1. We must stop polluting (pollute) the oceans and start protecting (protect) our environment.
2. Most parents would like their children to study (study) medicine or law.
3. She regrets spending (spend) such a lot of money on clothes and shoes.
4. You must not forget ordering (order) new carpets and curtains for the guest rooms.
5. He tried to get up (get up), but he was too weak.
6. My mother loves buying (buy) organic fruit and vegetables at the weekly market.
7. Tom hated waiting (wait) for his wife, as he was in a hurry as usual.
8. Instead of going (go) on a diet, try to exercise (exercise) more.

Adjective or adverb?

1. He is a pretty good (pretty, good) skier. He also skates fairly well (fair, good). pretty good
2. These flowers smell nice (nice). They will look perfect (perfect) on our dining table.
3. Jenny looks pretty (pretty) in her new dress. She knows how to dress pretty (pretty).
4. Susan is an excellent (excellent) cook. Her meals taste delicious (delicious). Every time she invites me for dinner I am ready (ready) to eat anything she serves me.
5. Do not touch this material, it is highly explosive (high, explosive) and extremely dangerous (extreme, dangerous).
6. She felt deeply (deep) hurt by his rude (rude) remark.
7. The teacher looked at me angry (angry). He became pretty furious (pretty, furious) when I did not want to apologise for what I had done.
8. It had grown extremely cold (extreme, cold), and we felt desperate (desperate) and hopeless (hopeless).
9. "Please, can you help me?" – "Just a moment, I'll be with you direct (direct)".
10. She turned pale (pale), after she had tasted the drink cautious (cautious). While I took her home quick (quick), she remained silent (silent) all the time.
11. At first this exercise sounded fair, difficult (fair, difficult), but in the end it seems quite simple (simple). I hope I did it perfect, good (perfect, good).
12. I hope this bus goes direct (direct) to the Tower. My poor feet feel terrible (terrible).
13. Lizzy wants to become a famous (famous) scientist. She is a high, gifted (high, gifted) girl, and she studies hard (hard) every day. However, she hard (hard) has time to see her friends.
14. Nowadays most elderly people have their pension transferred direct (direct) to their bank account.
15. I cannot speak free (free). My husband is terrible, jealous (terrible, jealous), and he can get fair, aggressive (fair, aggressive).